

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: I presume I have no choice.

THE PRESIDENT: On the contrary, you have the last choice.

Is there any further discussion?

(There was no response.)

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

The question arises on the adoption of Amendment No. 4 to Committee Recommendations EB-1 and EB-2 as amended by Report S&D-13. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment. A vote No is a vote against.

Cast your vote.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 92 votes in the affirmative and 5 in the negative, the motion is carried and the amendment is adopted.

Are there any other amendments to section 4.05? Are there any to 4.06? Are there any amendments to section 4.07? Are there any amendments to section 4.08?

Delegate Byrnes, do you desire to offer your amendment?

DELEGATE BYRNES: No, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you.

(Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other amendments to section 4.08? Are there any amendments to section 4.09? Are there any amendments to section 4.10? Are there any amendments to section 4.11?

Delegate Morgan, do you desire to offer your Amendment I?

DELEGATE MORGAN: We do, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: The pages will distribute your Amendment I.

Delegate Adkins, are you going to submit an amendment with respect to the word "presiding officer" in section 4.10?

DELEGATE ADKINS: Mr. President, I understand that the Committee on Style has agreed to accept the amendment simply adding the word "permanent" before "presiding officer," and it has been my understanding—

THE PRESIDENT: I am sorry. I am lost.

Accept which amendment? We do not have an amendment with respect to 4.10.

DELEGATE ADKINS: No, sir. I understood the Committee on Style had agreed on the motion to add the word "permanent" before the words "presiding officer" throughout.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Penniman, was that correct?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: This was my understanding, and the suggestion was made I think by the Chairman that Delegate Burdette and I handle this problem, and I delegated it to Delegate Burdette.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Adkins.

DELEGATE ADKINS: I think Delegate Penniman is referring to another section about a question that I raised. I think his staff assistant has it in his hand right in front of him.

We have all agreed on it as a committee amendment, if it could be done that informally.

THE PRESIDENT: It could have been before we acted on them.

Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: I had made a mistake in the particular one, but it is true that he asked the question and I had agreed to it, and I thought that it was included in your putting of the motion—

THE PRESIDENT: No. My copy was not marked, and it was not included.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: I am sorry.

THE PRESIDENT: We can pick it up now. I think it would be more orderly to pick it up by amendment. I will take care of it.

Delegate Della.

DELEGATE DELLA: Delegate Adkins, will you yield for a question?

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Adkins, would you take the floor to yield to a question?

DELEGATE ADKINS: If it is in order, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Della.

DELEGATE DELLA: Is it your understanding that a person who is elected as a
