

would have to be enacted into law, and we feel, therefore, that the original language is more closely allied to the federal constitutional requirements than the language as it came out of the Style Committee.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Miller.

DELEGATE B. MILLER: Mr. President, it is just a question, if I may, of Chairman Gallagher. In the discussion in Style on this question we wondered whether by using the words "a plan of its own" we would preclude the General Assembly from enacting a plan which they might like which had been offered to them, say, by the League of Women Voters, or any other group.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: No, I certainly would not put that interpretation upon it. The plan ultimately adopted by the General Assembly would be the plan of its own regardless of who suggested it or sponsored it in the beginning.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Beatrice Miller.

DELEGATE B. MILLER: In that case, I move the previous question.

THE PRESIDENT: Second?

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: All in favor of ordering the previous question on amendment 12 signify by saying Aye. Contrary No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

The question arises on the adoption of Amendment No. 12. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment. A vote No is a vote against.

Cast your vote.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 102 votes in the affirmative and none in the negative, the amendment is adopted.

Are there any other amendments to section 3.22?

Are there any other amendments to any of the sections of Committee Recommendation LB-1 and LB-2 other than 3.03, 3.04, 3.19 and 3.23?

If not, the question arises upon the adoption on second reading of Committee Recommendations LB-1, LB-2, and LB-3 with the exceptions of sections 3.03, 3.04 and 3.19 and 3.23. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the adoption of the recommendation with the exceptions noted. A vote No is a vote against.

Delegate Grumbacher.

DELEGATE GRUMBACHER: Is not 3.14 a special order, sir?

THE PRESIDENT: I'm sorry. Thank you. 3.03, 3.04, 3.14, 3.19 and 3.23 are the exceptions.

A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the adoption of the committee recommendations as amended with the exceptions noted. A vote No is a vote against.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote? The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 99 votes in the affirmative, and none in the negative, the Committee Recommendations LB-1, LB-2 and LB-3, as amended, with the exceptions of sections 3.03, 3.04, 3.14, 3.19 and 3.23, are adopted.

Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, before I retire, on behalf of the Convention I take this opportunity to wish the President a happy New Year.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you very much.

(Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Mrs. Marx has asked me to say thank you. She has placed five pages. She still needs accommodations for five more. If any of you have any suggestion, please let her know.

Delegate Fornos.

DELEGATE FORNOS: Mr. President, members of the Convention, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

THE PRESIDENT: State the privilege.

DELEGATE FORNOS: Certainly we have been blessed in this Convention with a wealth of talent in the staff that has assisted us, and at this time I would hope that the Convention would join me in wishing a happy birthday to a very able staff assistant of this Convention, a young lady now serving as assistant to the President, Miss Janet Shedd.

(Applause.)
