

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Committee on Legislative Branch will meet immediately after the end of this session to continue its voting on the package before it, and will continue voting this afternoon and this evening until completed. We will meet again Monday at 2:00 P.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Dulany.

DELEGATE DULANY: Mr. President, ladies, and gentlemen, we reached the halfway point or just about the halfway point of this Convention, and yet we have not had the exciting floor debates, nor the stimulating news stories produced from a final decision on the floor of the Convention.

In spite of that, we have had excellent news coverage. I have enough difficulty, I think, grasping the issues in one committee, but our newspaper reporters have to grasp them in all eight committees. I think they have done an excellent job on informing the public on issues to this moment. I would like to express the appreciation of the Committee on Public Information to the press for their excellent coverage of the Convention. (Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, in order to allow the typists and the duplicating process to catch up with the discussions we have had, and decisions we have reached, in General Provisions, there will be no meeting today after the session. We will begin again on Monday, immediately after the adjournment of the Monday afternoon session, so that we can get into some other areas. We will be voting next week, final votes on the many matters, we have before us.

I might warn the committee that we will probably be meeting several evenings next week. Thank you, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements of committee chairmen? Delegate Scanlan.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: The Committee on Rules will meet at 3:00 P.M. on Monday.

THE PRESIDENT: Further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Chabot.

DELEGATE CHABOT: Mr. President, I would like my presence recorded.

THE PRESIDENT: Do any other delegates present now, not present at roll call, desire to record their presence? Delegate Storm.

DELEGATE STORM: I rise for another—

THE PRESIDENT: Let me get this first. Are there any delegates present now, not present at roll call, who desire to record their presence? If not, the Chair recognizes Delegate Storm.

DELEGATE STORM: I just thought it might be of interest, Mr. President, to know that the delegate from Frederick County will be holding a public meeting in Frederick tomorrow. Anyone who wishes to come is welcome. This will be at 4:30 P.M. at the Court House.

On Saturday, I think it would be well to note, since we will not be here to congratulate him personally, that Delegate Cleveland is celebrating a birthday, and many members of his distinguished family will be joining this distinguished delegate to wish him a happy birthday. I wish him a happy birthday. (Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Marion.

DELEGATE MARION: Mr. President, although I think most, if not all, of the members of the group have had to leave before now, I wanted to acknowledge to the Convention the presence today earlier this afternoon in the gallery here, and in several committee sessions this morning, of approximately 25 members of the tour group of the Johns Hopkins University Women's Club who were here under the chairmanship of Mrs. Byron Tepper.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by delegates? Delegate Murray.

DELEGATE D. MURRAY: Thank you, Mr. President, I rise to a point of personal privilege.

THE PRESIDENT: State the privilege.

DELEGATE D. MURRAY: We have done a little name calling. Please take this in the right way. I would like to add a name to this. We have a delegate, I mean a page, from Prince George's County, Miss Vicki Kidd, an ex-student. I could not let the day go by without having Vicki introduced to this group. Vicki, will you rise, please. (Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Bradshaw.

DELEGATE BRADSHAW: Mr. President, the members of the Montgomery
