

THE PRESIDENT: I would think so. Just about, maybe five minutes or so either way.

DELEGATE KIEFER: The Committee will continue its deliberations at 7:30 P.M. this evening. Tomorrow morning at 9:30 any delegate who has submitted a proposal in the last day or so that wants to be heard can appear before this committee to be heard. I understand this is in accordance with the rules. We want to help you but we have eleven more proposals today and have to get on with some kind of procedural order. This schedule does not apply to Delegate Finch who we will hear either tomorrow afternoon after the Convention adjourns or tomorrow night at 7:30 P.M.

It had been previously announced that a public hearing would be held on the preamble last Friday but because the Convention did not convene, this was postponed. That hearing will be held at 7:30 P.M. tomorrow night.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow.

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, the Committee on State Finance and Taxation will meet 15 minutes after this session adjourns. I hate to suggest to the members that they forego the opportunity to see the film this time, but I am asking them to do so because the governor is sending to our committee a series of recommendations which means that our deliberations now will have to continue and many of the items which we thought would already be concluded will have to be reconsidered in the light of those recommendations. So I am asking you please come over to the meeting 15 minutes after this meeting adjourns and we will resume tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch will not meet again until tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M. We are adopting this procedure to allow our committee members to see the film this afternoon.

More important, may I take this opportunity to announce that today in the Judicial Branch is the birthday for our attractive delegate Susan Kahl. Her age is not announced, but she has not been kissed. Appropriate greetings may be extended.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Moser.

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will reconvene at 7:30 P.M. this evening. We are taking at some point in the evening final action votes. Tomorrow morning at 9:00 A.M. we have scheduled an opportunity for all delegates who have introduced proposals and have not been heard to be heard. This would include by our calculations the following proposals: Delegate Proposal 277, by Delegate Singer, which has been referred to our committee and is similar to his Proposal No. 418. Delegate Proposal 422, by Delegate Byrnes, introduced today and Delegate Proposal No. 426, introduced by Delegate Fornos today.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan.

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will meet immediately following this plenary session. We will continue our consideration of the issues raised by sections 4.20, 4.21, and 4.22 of the Commission draft. We did not conclude our deliberations on Friday as we hoped because we ran out of time, but we hope to finish them today.

We will also meet at 8:00 P.M. this evening if necessary.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Koss.

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections will continue its consideration and votes as necessary on frequency of elections tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Convention, the Committee on the Legislative Branch will meet tonight at 7:45 P.M. and tomorrow morning at 9:30 A.M. Those members of the Convention who were invited to appear before us to discuss their proposals between 2:00 P.M. and 3:30 P.M. this afternoon but who were unable to attend are invited to join us tonight at 7:45 P.M. Repeating, those who were invited to attend today between 2:00 and 3:30 P.M. to discuss their proposals are invited to attend tonight at 7:45 P.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, since several committee members have indicated the desire to witness the film, the General Provisions Committee will meet this evening at 7:30 P.M. We will again meet tomorrow morning at 9:30 P.M.
