

Delegate Moser.

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, on page 83, section 37, line 20, to be consistent after the word "adopted", might I suggest that the word "only" go in there too?

THE PRESIDENT: Very well. Is there any objection to further changing the committee report on page 63, line 20, after the word "adopted", and insert the word "only"?

The Chair hears none and the report will be considered as so modified.

Are there any other changes?

Delegate Grant.

DELEGATE GRANT: Mr. President, on page 64 in line 6 and in line 13 it refers to Baltimore City and it just says "the city". Inasmuch as Baltimore City will become a county and not a city upon the adoption of this Constitution, might it not be better to just say Baltimore City since it is now a proper name rather than just a city?

THE PRESIDENT: I think you are quite correct, Delegate Grant.

Do you agree, Delegate Penniman?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Yes, you are quite right.

THE PRESIDENT: In line 6 and in line 13 on page 64 add the word "Baltimore" before the word "city". Is there any objection?

And strike the word "the" in each instance.

If there is no objection, the modification will be made.

Any other changes or suggestions?

Delegate Henderson.

DELEGATE HENDERSON: If I might divert to page 53, did you leave in the title "personal rights" there?

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Penniman?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Yes.

THE PRESIDENT: You would have to otherwise it would be under the caption "general" even though there would be only one section.

Delegate Henderson.

DELEGATE HENDERSON: I would like to suggest for what it might be worth, that since sovereign immunity was placed back under the finance, you might as well put Eminent Domain back there too. They both involve problems of additional financing in one sense.

THE PRESIDENT: The reason for this arrangement, if I followed your question, was that it follows the pattern of the articles themselves.

Delegate Hardwicke.

DELEGATE HARDWICKE: I think Delegate Henderson has the impression that sub-section (b) was put into Finance. It is actually put into something called General Provisions at the very end.

THE PRESIDENT: Yes.

Delegate Hardwicke.

DELEGATE HARDWICKE: I do think, Mr. President, that the title Personal Rights probably ought to be made to conform to the title of the rights article which is Declaration of Rights.

THE PRESIDENT: Very well. Is there any objection to the suggested modification, line 1, page 53, change the caption to Declaration of Rights?

The Chair hears no objection. The modification will be made.

Are there any further questions?

Delegate Lord.

DELEGATE LORD: Mr. President, on that same page, I think another change has to be made. When we move that section, old sub-section (b) to the end, that leaves only the old sub-section (a), and I think it should be retitled Eminent Domain instead of delayed effect of certain sections.

THE PRESIDENT: The modification has already been made.

Are there any further suggestions or changes?

If not, we will proceed to the schedule of legislation.

Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Mr. President, there is an obvious spelling error in "suffrage" in line 26.

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer.

DELEGATE KIEFER: I have to call your attention that section 1 under Personal Rights is no longer in Personal Rights. It is under General Provisions. It
