

Delegate Marion.

DELEGATE MARION: Should we not then delete the modification?

THE PRESIDENT: That is what I am suggesting. Is there any objection to deleting the modification as heretofore made?

The Chair hears none. The modification previously made is rescinded.

Is there any other question?

Delegate Stern.

DELEGATE STERN: Page 75 on line 5, the word "percent" was struck and made into two words. I do not know which is correct because on line 7 the word "percent" is one word and my old dictionary has it as one word.

THE PRESIDENT: You want to get it uniformly into two?

Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: That is correct. It should be three per cent, two words.

THE PRESIDENT: May I ask why two words?

Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: In our dictionary it gave it only as two words, percentage as one, but per cent as two.

THE PRESIDENT: Just a second.

Is there any objection as to a modification? Is this as to the same modification?

Delegate Stern.

DELEGATE STERN: Yes. Perhaps you used a larger dictionary and it used it only as one word and it says that earlier it was used as two words.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: It is two words in the big dictionary we are using. Also, in the U. S. GOVERNMENT STYLE MANUAL.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any objection to changing "percent" as one word into two words on line 8, page 75?

The Chair hears none so the change is made.

Delegate Cardin.

DELEGATE CARDIN: On line 8 I overlooked another "registered" that should be changed to "qualified".

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any objection to changing "registered" on line 8, page 75, to the word "qualified"?

The Chair hears none. The change will be made.

Page 75, line 8, the word "registered" is changed to "qualified".

Are there any other changes?

Delegate Ulrich.

DELEGATE ULRICH: On page 76 on line 11 there, there is "registered voters" again.

THE PRESIDENT: Change the word "registered" to "qualified" on line 11, page 76. Is there any objection?

The Chair hears none. The modification will be made.

Are there any other changes or suggestions?

Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, on page 59, in line 22, the matter to which Judge Henderson referred has already been brought to our attention, and an amendment has already been prepared so there is no need to refer to that question to staff.

THE PRESIDENT: You mean in section 12?

Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: Section 26 on page 59.

THE PRESIDENT: Oh, I am sorry.

Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: In line 22, he called your attention to the word "such" and you said you would refer it to staff. There should be on your desk already an amendment to correct that line.

THE PRESIDENT: Very well.

Are there any other suggestions as to the schedule of legislation?

The Chair hears none.

Page 66, line 19, the staff suggests that the word "such" be changed to the word "the" and they will prepare an amendment with respect to Baltimore City. Is there any objection?

If not, the modification will be made.

Delegate Marion.
