

DELEGATE MARION: On page 75, line 45, we refer to section 7.04. I think it should be followed by the words "of the Constitution" which is consistent with the way that has been handled elsewhere in the Schedule.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any objection to the modification suggested? The Chair hears none.

Page 75, line 45, after section 7.04, insert the words "of the Constitution".

Are there any other suggestions?

Delegate Miller?

DELEGATE B. MILLER: Mr. President, I have to go all the way back to page 5. Is this the time to do so?

THE PRESIDENT: Let me finish the schedule of legislation first.

Delegate Clagett.

DELEGATE CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, page 75, line 3, where we say not to exceed nine. Do you think we ought to have members or persons there so that it could not possibly mean nine charter boards? It seems obvious, but it does read funnily.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chairman suggests that it would be better constructed if after "board" we insert the word "of" and after "nine" we insert "members". Is there any objection?

If not, the modification will be made. Page 75, line 2, after the word "board", insert the word "of". In line 3 after the word "nine", insert the word "members".

Are there any other suggestions as to the schedule of legislation?

Delegate Beatrice Miller?

DELEGATE B. MILLER: Mr. Chairman, on page 5 on section 2.01, I was looking at line 22, and it seemed to me that there should be a comma after the word "election" on line 22 and to be absolutely explicit that both phrases "shall be eligible to vote" that on line 19 after the word "years", the word "and" should be included.

THE PRESIDENT: Well, give me the first change again. Comma where?

Delegate Beatrice Miller.

DELEGATE B. MILLER: After the word "election" on line 22.

THE PRESIDENT: Do you agree, Delegate Penniman?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Yes, that will be acceptable.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any objection to inserting a comma at the end of line 22 on page 5?

The Chair hears none. The modification will be made.

What is the second one?

Delegate Miller.

DELEGATE B. MILLER: On line 19 of the same page, after the words "nineteen years", and "who has", insert the word "and".

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Penniman?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: That is acceptable.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any objection to the further modification on line 19, page 5? Does someone object?

Delegate Marvin Smith.

DELEGATE MARVIN SMITH: Mr. President, I am not at all sure that it belongs there. I think that the comma employs the "and".

THE PRESIDENT: If there is an objection, the change cannot be made except by amendment.

Is there anything further?

Delegate Burgess.

DELEGATE BURGESS: Since we are on this draft, I wonder if I can refer to lines 38 and 39 on page 4 of section 1.16. From the discussion I had with Professor Penniman, it would appear that the word "any" on line 38 was required by the presence of the word "that" on line 39. I was wondering if we could delete both of these words without changing the substance of this particular section and clear up any misgivings or possible misinterpretations of the word "any" in this instance.

THE PRESIDENT: I am not sure that I followed your change. Would you give it to us again.

Delegate Burgess.

DELEGATE BURGESS: I was suggesting the possibility of changing on line 38 the deletion of the style change which included the word "any" and which was apparently required by the presence of the word "that" on line 39.
