

located at some other point in the sentence?

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Burdette.

DELEGATE BURDETTE: Yes, exactly.

THE PRESIDENT: Where?

DELEGATE BURDETTE: I should like to get the concept that the General Assembly shall have concurrent power by law, moved into—

THE PRESIDENT: Could you do it better by saying you would regulate by law?

Delegate Burdette.

DELEGATE BURDETTE: I think that would be all right, shall have concurrent to regulate by law. I see no objection to that.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Marion.

DELEGATE MARION: Mr. President, that is perfectly agreeable to me if the amendment can be so modified to insert the word "by law" in the sentence as it will read as amended after the word "regulate". I am acceptable to so modifying the amendment, and Chairman Penniman has observed behind me that he thinks that would be preferable.

THE PRESIDENT: The request is made that the amendment be modified by striking all of line 2 and 3 and striking the word "in" in line 5 and striking everything after the word "regulate" in line 7, and inserting "by law".

Is there any objection to the amendment?

Delegate Burdette.

DELEGATE BURDETTE: Would you mind reading the sentence as it would read?

THE PRESIDENT: The sentence would then read, "The General Assembly shall have concurrent power to regulate by law the matters enumerated in this section, except when these matters are specifically required by this Constitution to be prescribed by rule".

Is there any objection to the modification?

The Chair hears none.

The amendment will be so modified.

Is there any further discussion?

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

The Clerk will ring the quorum bell.

The question arises on the adoption of Amendment No. 15 to Report S&D-18. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment. A vote No is a vote against.

Cast your votes.

Has every delegate voted?

Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 83 votes in the affirmative and 22 in the negative, the motion is carried. The amendment is adopted.

This concludes all amendments that the Chair has. Are there any other amendments?

(There was no response.)

THE PRESIDENT: The Clerk will ring the quorum bell.

The Sergeant-at-Arms will get all delegates from the corridors and the lounge.

For what purpose does Delegate Maurer rise?

DELEGATE MAURER: Personal privilege.

THE PRESIDENT: State the privilege.

DELEGATE MAURER: I would like the Convention to welcome another brave visitor from Montgomery County, Mrs. Frank Proctor, a member of the Constitutional Convention Commission.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Bard.

DELEGATE BARD: I rise for a point of personal privilege.

THE PRESIDENT: State the privilege.

DELEGATE BARD: Bernard Glatt, who is associated with me at the Community College of Baltimore came down early this afternoon with the hopes that we would leave in one hour. He is a very brave soul and is still here and I hope that you will applaud all of his courage.

(Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other amendments to any part of the Committee Report S&E-18? After this point the Chair will rule out of order any amendments in-
