

After that is concluded, we would adjourn sine die, so that unless there are perhaps, and I imagine there may very well be, a few other resolutions of a more formal character that we perhaps have not thought of to have printed today, we will have to act upon them on Wednesday.

Because of this and because we are all very grateful to the legislature for making the State House available to us, it is incumbent upon us as guests to vacate, to make it in a position to be turned over to the cleanup crews just as quickly as possible because members of the legislature start coming back to their offices next week. They usually start coming back to their offices earlier than the session, so please clean out your desk today.

There will be nothing except the formal ceremony on Wednesday, so after the session this afternoon, clean out your desk here in the chamber, and also your locker.

There is a great deal of interest in the signing ceremony on Wednesday, and therefore we have decided to issue tickets for admission to the galleries. As all of you know, the number of seats in the gallery is very severely limited.

Accordingly, each delegate will be entitled to one pass for admission to the gallery. This will leave, in addition to the seats for the delegates' guests, a very limited number of extras for the public, I think maybe 25 or something like that, in both galleries combined.

These, of course, are available on a first-come, first-served basis. The tickets may be picked up in Mr. Martineau's office. I would deem it a great favor if you would make it a point to pick up your ticket promptly, and if you do not expect to have need of the ticket, it would be a great convenience if you would advise Mr. Martineau's office. In that way if there are some delegates who would like to have more than one, we could reallocate tickets of delegates who do not want them. Without word from the delegate, Mr. Martineau has been instructed not to reallocate a ticket assigned to any one delegate until noon on Wednesday. So if you are not going to use it, please let someone in his office know.

The clerk has asked me to announce that there are a number of volumes of the Annotated Code belonging to the set in his office which are missing. They are undoubtedly in one of the desks or borrowed. So as you go through your things, will you please look for them — Volumes 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, and the supplement to volume 7. It is very expensive to replace individual volumes like this, and we would greatly appreciate it if you would make the effort to search and see if you have them anywhere, and see that they are returned.

Mr. Clerk, are there any reports?

READING CLERK: There are no reports, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Committee Report LB-1 was read across the desk several days ago. It is on the agenda today. I think it requires a brief explanation.

The Chair recognizes Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen, I think it may be necessary for me to move to suspend all interfering rules so that Committee Report LB-1 may be received and considered.

THE PRESIDENT: No. It may be considered without suspension of the rules.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: In that event, briefly, Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen: this is a report of consideration and disposition which the Committee on the Legislative Branch gave to those proposals which were not in some manner incorporated in LB-1, LB-2, or LB-3. It is self-explanatory.

Thank you, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any discussion?

(There was no response.)

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

The question arises on the adoption of Committee Report LB-1. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the adoption of the report. A vote No is a vote against.

Cast your vote.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 109 votes in the affirmative and 9 in the negative, the motion carries. The report is adopted.

If there are no other reports of the Committee, we will proceed to a consideration of the series of resolutions, each of which I will have the Clerk read.

Resolution No. 30. The Clerk will read the resolution?
