

that the last three reporters coming in are on supplemental roll call.

(Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Resolution No. 52, the Clerk will read the entire resolution.

READING CLERK: Resolution No. 52, by Delegate Penniman, Chairman of the Committee on Style, Drafting and Arrangement.

THE PRESIDENT: If you have copies, the Clerk will read the title only.

READING CLERK: A RESOLUTION authorizing the Committee on Style, Drafting and Arrangement to make certain clerical changes to achieve uniformity in the style of the proposed constitution.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: I move that all interfering rules be suspended in order to consider this resolution.

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Penniman, will you please move to suspend all interfering rules to permit consideration of Resolution No. 52?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: I think I just did, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: I am sorry.

The State police have apparently acted under somebody's orders — not my own — and have escorted to the well of the chamber my secretary, Mrs. Nancy Looker.

(The delegates rose and applauded.)

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any discussion?

Delegate White.

DELEGATE WHITE: Mr. President, I have just received another note. It said: "Dear John, we are finally on target with recognition of Vera Brown."

Signed, "Marvin Singer."

Mr. President, I wonder whether the Afro-American was notified.

(Laughter.)

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boileau.

DELEGATE BOILEAU: I was informed through an oversight one attractive young lady had been missed who was with us consistently since the Convention began. While not being a member of the Convention, she will be recording this Convention for posterity: Miss Melissa Kinsey from the National Municipal League.

(Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: I was not going to introduce her as part of the Press corps. She is not part of the Press corps, but as Delegate Boileau indicated, she is doing quite a bit of reporting — I dare say she has already.

Delegate Grant.

DELEGATE GRANT: Mr. President, I notice that there is no organization in here to correct spelling errors. Is that intended to be in here also?

THE PRESIDENT: I would not think it would be necessary, but maybe it should.

(Applause.)

May we consider the resolution amended so as to add a paragraph 5 on line 9 of page 10 to read, "to correct errors of spelling"?

If there is no objection — and there is none — the modification will be made.

Thank you, Delegate Grant.

The question arises on the motion to suspend interfering rules to permit immediate consideration of Resolution No. 52. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of suspension of rules. A vote Nay is a vote against.

Cast your vote.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 124 votes in the affirmative and none in the negative, the motion carries. The rules are suspended.

The question now arises on the adoption of the resolution.

All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

I would also like you to recognize by your applause, although they are not here, the additional secretary who was in the President's office until a week ago. She left. She was expecting a baby in about a month. This is Susan McCahan.

(Applause.)
