

THE CHAIRMAN: You may.

DELEGATEE HARDWICKE: It appears to me that if we leave this "may have occurred" the governor would have discretion as to whether or not the destruction has occurred. It seems to me the better language would be to permit the governor to act only if the destruction has in fact occurred, and not where there is any uncertainty as to whether or not it has occurred.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher, in view of the comments do you stand on your language?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. Chairman, I do not stand on the language. I think the same object can be accomplished both in Mr. Hardwicke's verb and my verb. I am happy to give him the benefit of the verb.

THE CHAIRMAN: Will the seconder accept the modification to strike the words "may have" in line four and substitute the word "has"?

DELEGATE BARRICK: Yes, I accept it. That was my original wording.

THE CHAIRMAN: The motion as modified, the words "may have" in line four are stricken and the word "has" is inserted.

Is there any further discussion?

(There was no response.)

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

The question arises on Amendment No. 11 to Committee Recommendation GP-1: in line 15 on page 1 of the Committee Recommendation strike out the words "may occur" and in lieu thereof insert the words "is threatened or has occurred."

A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment. A vote No is a vote against the amendment. Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it, the motion carries. The amendment is adopted.

Delegate Singer.

DELEGATE SINGER: Mr. Chairman, I have Amendment No. 12.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will read the Amendment.

READING CLERK: Amendment No. 12 to Committee Recommendation GP-1, by Delegate Singer: in line 12 on page 1 of the Committee Recommendation No. GP-1 strike out "repel invasions,".

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there a second?

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes Delegate Singer to speak to the motion.

DELEGATE SINGER: Mr. Chairman, very briefly, I believe that the phrase in question is very little relevant to the present day. The section will not suffer at all by the deletion of the phrase, and would be improved in that it suggests something not relevant today.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any further discussion? Ready for the question?

The question arises on the adoption of Amendment No. 12 to Committee Recommendation GP-1. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment to strike the words "repel invasions" from line 12. A vote No is a vote against the Amendment. Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Noes seem to have it. The Noes have it. The motion is lost. The amendment is rejected.

Are there any further amendments?

I assume, Delegate Wheatley, you rise for the same purpose?

DELEGATE WHEATLEY: Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Before recognizing you, I want to make sure there are no other amendments which have been prepared and are ready to be offered. If not, then in keeping with the promise to Delegate Schneider, I wish first to give him the opportunity to resubmit Amendment No. 10, after which the Chair will recognize Delegate Wheatley.

DELEGATE SCHNEIDER: Mr. Chairman, I resubmit Amendment No. 10.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is it seconded?

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE CHAIRMAN: Amendment No. 10 to Committee Recommendation GP-1 is now before you. The Chair recognizes Delegate Wheatley.
