

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Moser.

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Drafting Subcommittee of the Committee on Local Government will meet immediately after this session. The Local Government Committee itself will meet at three sharp to continue voting on proposals for final action.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan.

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will not meet this afternoon, but will meet tomorrow at 9:30 A.M. to have our final review of the draft that we have decided upon. There will probably be some votes for reconsideration, but I am hopeful to dispose of all of them tomorrow morning and report to the Convention next week.

THE PRESIDENT: Further announcements by Committee Chairmen?

Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Mr. President, the Committee on Style will meet fifteen minutes after the completion of this session.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Koss.

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections will meet twenty minutes after the adjournment of this session and will meet again tonight if necessary.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Committee on the Legislative Branch will meet fifteen minutes after the termination of today's session and again tonight at 7:45 P.M. The Chair has appointed a five-man subcommittee to meet at 3:00 P.M. or immediately after with Judge Sherbow's Committee, Messrs. Miller, Hanson, Gilchrist, Sollins, and Bamberger, to discuss SF-1.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow.

DELEGATE SHERBOW: May I ask a question of Delegate Gallagher, please?

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Yes.

DELEGATE SHERBOW: I had hoped that your subcommittee would meet with our subcommittee fifteen minutes after this session is over. That will enable us to proceed more expeditiously. Would you be willing?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Fifteen minutes after is quite agreeable, I am sure.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, in an earlier session the Committee on General Provisions extended written invitations to all delegates who had proposals referred to our Committee. We were very happy to hear from most of them.

Since that time there have been additional proposals introduced and referred to our Committee. We would like to extend at this point an invitation to all delegates who have introduced proposals that have been referred to the General Provisions Committee, beginning with Proposal 358 to join with us tomorrow afternoon in order to give us the benefit of your wisdom and deliberations as proponents for your proposals.

The General Provisions Committee will meet this afternoon fifteen minutes after this session adjourns and again tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boyer, do you mean fifteen minutes after the session? I thought you had an appointment with me.

DELEGATE BOYER: Yes, sir. We had the schedule all worked out so that I will be with you, but the Committee will go on.

THE PRESIDENT: All right.

Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen?

Are there any further announcements by other delegates?

If not, the Chair recognizes Delegate Powers of the Committee on Calendar and Agenda, sorry, Delegate Hardwicke.

DELEGATE HARDWICKE: Mr. Chairman, I would like to note my presence.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other delegates present now not present at roll call?

Delegate Stern.

DELEGATE STERN: I would like to note my presence.

THE PRESIDENT: Does any other delegate desire to note their presence?

Delegate Chabot.

DELEGATE CHABOT: I would like to note my presence.
