

students from Parkway Elementary School of Frederick County, who are attending the General Session this afternoon. They are in the gallery now.

(Applause.)

I would like also to announce that the Fifth Grade of School No. 148 from Baltimore City visited committee hearings and attended a showing of the movie at the Convention this morning.

Before moving on to reports, may I ask that you turn to your books and make a slight typographical correction in Committee Memorandum S&E-1, Suffrage and Elections, on page 3, line 5, the word "opinion" should read "option".

Reports of other standing committees.

Committee Recommendation JB-1. The Clerk will read the recommendation.

READING CLERK: Committee Recommendation No. JB-1 by the Committee on the Judicial Branch, F. DeSales Mudd, Chairman.

A RECOMMENDATION that the constitution contain an article V establishing the judicial branch of the state government, the article to read as follows:

THE PRESIDENT: Committee Recommendation No. JB-1 is referred to the Committee of the Whole.

This has not yet been duplicated, or the duplication is not complete. It will be finished and in your possession before the day is over. Will you please be sure that you have this recommendation before the day is out, because I understand that in all probability this Recommendation may be on the calendar for debate on Thursday of this week.

The recommendation embraces a complete judicial article of the proposed constitution.

You will also have in conjunction with the Committee Recommendation JB-1 Committee Memorandum JB-1 in support of Committee Recommendation JB-1.

Both will be reproduced and here I think before the session ends this afternoon.

We also have some minority reports.

Minority Report LB-1A. The Clerk will read the report.

READING CLERK: Minority Report LB-1A, by Delegates Hanson, Miller, Sol-lins and Gill, of the Committee on the Legislative Branch.

A MINORITY REPORT that article III of the new constitution provide for a unicameral legislature composed of one hundred members elected from single member districts to read as follows:

THE PRESIDENT: Minority Report LB-1B. The Clerk will read the report.

READING CLERK: Minority Report No. LB-1B, by Delegates Clark, Hanson, Hopkins and Sollins of the Committee on the Legislative Branch.

A MINORITY REPORT that section 3.04 of the new constitution provide for a Senate of forty members and a House of Delegates of eighty members, to read as follows:

THE PRESIDENT: Minority Report LB-1C. The Clerk will read the report.

READING CLERK: Minority Report No. LB-1C, by Delegates Gilchrist, Bushong, Anderson, Linton, Gleason and Della of the Committee on the Legislative Branch.

A MINORITY REPORT that section 3.04 of the new constitution provide for a General Assembly with a total membership of one hundred eighty in the Senate and the House of Delegates, to read as follows.

THE PRESIDENT: Minority Report LB-1D. The Clerk will read the report.

READING CLERK: Minority Report LB-1D, by Delegates Gleason, Linton, Della and Peters.

A MINORITY REPORT that section 3.04 of the new constitution permit the General Assembly to set its own size, to read as follows.

THE PRESIDENT: Minority Report LB-1E. The Clerk will read the report.

READING CLERK: Minority Report LB-1E, by Delegates Hopkins, Sollins, Hanson and Clark.

A MINORITY REPORT that section 3.05 of the new constitution not contain a district residence requirement for running for the General Assembly, to read as follows.

THE PRESIDENT: Minority Report LB-1F. The Clerk will read the report.

READING CLERK: Minority Report LB-1F, by Delegates Bard, Gleason, Miller, Sollins and Hanson.