The question arises on the secondary amendment to Delegate Powers' motion to adjourn, that is, that the motion be amended to provide that the Convention adjourn until 12:00 noon tomorrow, Tuesday. Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment. A vote No is a vote against. All in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Chair is in doubt. A roll call vote. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment to adjourn until 12:00 noon tomorrow. A vote No is a vote against the amendment, and leaves Delegate Vecera's amendment before us. Please signify your votes.

Have all delegates voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 76 votes in the affirmative, and 57 in the negative, the amendment is adopted.

The question now before you arises on the motion as amended to amend the motion to adjourn to provide that we adjourn until 12:00 noon tomorrow. The Chair recognizes Delegate Wheatley.

DELEGATE WHEATLEY: Mr. President, will the Chairman of the Committee on Calendar and Agenda yield for a question prior to the vote?

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Powers?

DELEGATE POWERS: Yes.

DELEGATE WHEATLEY: Just so we can be clear on this debate, to be clear under the rule, under what schedule would members who are not members of the committee, be aware of the decision of the majority or minority so that they may be scheduled for debate?

DELEGATE POWERS: The plan would not only permit debate by the controlled debate under majority and minority time, but it would also allow uncontrolled debate. That is the procedure which I believe has been explained, but there is no harm in repeating this. Each side is allowed equal time, one, under the control. This follows the procedure of the United States Congress and other similar organizations, one under the committee chairman, who would control the majority of the debate and yield time to various delegates, and the other would be controlled by someone, agreed upon by the minority. That delegate would yield time to other delegates, within the total controlled limitation. Then there would be other time that would be permitted by delegates who were not yielded to by the chairman of the committee or whoever was in control of the minority debate, and there would be a limitation of that time. In the latter category, it would be a matter of being recognized by the President, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Wheatley?

DELEGATE WHEATLEY: Will the Chairman yield for one further question for clarification? What would you advise for the procedure in the event you want to participate in the control of debate? Would this be best accomplished by contacting the chairman of the committee?

DELEGATE POWERS: If you want to participate in the controlled debate on the side of the committee recommendation, see the chairman of the committee. If you want to participate on the other side, the chairman of the committee can certainly tell you who controls the minority. Sometimes that will be divided among various people, depending upon the division of the issues, and if you do not get an agreement to get any time there, then the next thing to do is to get recognized as soon as you can.

DELEGATE WHEATLEY: One further question, and I think it will be cleared in my mind. In the event you were not able to be in the controlled debate and were questioning as to whether or not there was such time allowed for the uncontrolled debate, the only way to change that would be to vote against the rule. Is that correct?

DELEGATE POWERS: That is correct. If any delegate is not satisfied with the proposal tomorrow, for example, starting out with the committee recommendation of the legislative branch, there would be in addition to the usual Calendar and Agenda a debate scheduled, and at the time the motion was made to resolve the Convention into the Committee of the Whole, it would carry with it the adoption of the debate schedule. Any member who is aggrieved by the debate schedule would then be given an opportunity to assert his position, and there would be a vote of the majority of the Convention as to whether it was debatable.

DELEGATE WHEATLEY: In order to intelligently appraise this, would it be possible to have the tentative schedules ad-
