

be appropriate at this time to find out from the members of the Committee whether there are in fact other members who would like to speak either pro or con with respect to this minority report.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think so. In view of the debate schedule, the only motion that would be in order would be a motion for the Committee to rise and request the Convention to amend the debate schedule.

DELEGATE GLEASON; Mr. Chairman, I wonder if I might ask if I could move that the Committee rise to allow me to have about four minutes to wrap up my presentation. I did not have time to speak with respect to the specific amendment, with the understanding that the Chairman for the Majority would have similar time.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there a second to the motion? The motion is that the Committee rise for the purpose of a question to the Convention, to amend the debate schedule to allow an additional four minutes of controlled debate for the proponents and four minutes of controlled debate for the opponents.

Is there a second?

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers for comment.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. Chairman, we have been on this particular amendment for approximately two and a half hours. The time that was allotted for limited debate was agreed to by both sides. That was ten minutes per side controlled debate, twenty minutes uncontrolled debate, a total of forty minutes, and the presentation took the rest of the time.

Delegate Gleason went very thoroughly into the matter during the presentation and responded to many questions, and from the point of view of the Committee on Calendar and Agenda, we feel that anything further would not be of any additional benefit in the delegates reaching a decision on a vote on this amendment, and we hope the motion will fail.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question arises on the motion that the Committee recess and request that the Convention amend the debate schedule for the proponent and an additional four minutes of controlled time for the opponent. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the motion to rise, and a vote No is a vote against.

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; opposed, No. The Noes seem to have it.

DELEGATE HUTCHINSON: Roll call.

THE CHAIRMAN: A roll call requires ten seconds.

A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the Committee rising for the purpose indicated; a vote No. a vote against. Indicate your vote.

Have all delegates voted? Does anyone desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 75 votes in the affirmative and 60 in the negative, the motion carries. The Committee will rise.

(Whereupon, at 3:30 P.M., the Committee of the Whole rose, and the Convention reconvened.)

(The mace was replaced by the Sergeant-at-Arms.)

DELEGATE GLEASON: Yes.

(Whereupon, the motion was duly made.)

THE PRESIDENT: Is there a second?

DELEGATE SOSNOWSKI: Second.
