

of the Secretary of the Convention, a change of home address, change of Annapolis address, telephone number, any other information will enable the delegates to reach you when you are not right here. I would greatly appreciate it if you would each make it a point to do this, certainly by the end of tomorrow; if we do not hear from you, we will assume the information that is already available is complete and correct.

I want to announce also that there will be a meeting of the chairmen of all committees in my office immediately following the close of this session.

One other announcement has to do with the parking lot. We have received urgent requests from the persons having charge of the parking lot to confine our use of it to the area set apart for us. In the large parking lot, which is designated for our use, there is a rope which separates approximately forty or fifty spaces, I believe. These have been assigned to the Governor's staff. A number of you were not aware of this and parked in those areas today. When you park on the lot, please do not go behind the roped-off area, which purposely has been made at the back end of the lot. I am not sure of my directions, but that is the north end, I assume. Some of you who are more familiar with Annapolis can correct me if I am wrong.

I think they are all the announcements I have. I would like now to call on each of the committee chairmen for any announcements he may make. The Committee on Calendar and Agenda, Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: The Committee on Calendar and Agenda will meet tomorrow afternoon at 1:45 P.M. at the committee office on the second floor of the State House.

THE PRESIDENT: The Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble, Delegate Kiefer.

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, in view of your announcement of the meeting of the chairmen, the meeting that was called for this committee immediately after this meeting will have to proceed without me, but it will proceed because we have Mr. James Gentry here talking to us, and I will ask Mrs. Bothe if she will just attend to this while I am gone.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you. I should have added two things to that announcement that I made. I do not anticipate that the meeting of the committee chairmen will last more than a half hour. It will probably be closer to fifteen minutes. Secondly, I should have said what I think is understood, that it is a meeting of committee chairmen and officers.

The Committee on Suffrage and Elections, Delegate Koss.

DELEGATE KOSS: The Committee on Suffrage and Elections will meet tomorrow morning, Mr. President, at 10 o'clock in the committee room in the Shaw House.

THE PRESIDENT: The Committee on Legislative Branch, Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Committee on the Legislative Branch will not meet after the full session here this afternoon as originally announced, but will meet tomorrow morning at 9:00 A.M. in the committee room.

THE PRESIDENT: The Committee on the Executive Branch, Delegate Morgan.

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch was scheduled to meet this afternoon right after the Convention adjourned. Because of the meeting of the committee chairmen, it will have to go on without me, and I will ask one of the other members of the committee to chair the committee in my absence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Committee on the Judicial Branch, Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the next committee meeting of the Judicial Branch will not be held immediately following this session as previously announced but will be tomorrow morning in room H-9 at 10:00 A.M.

THE PRESIDENT: The Committee on Local Government, Delegate Moser.

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will reconvene at 3:15 P.M. this afternoon in its meeting rooms, which incidentally are the offices occupied by the Senate Finance Committee on the first floor of the Court of Appeals Building, for those delegates who may wish to attend the meetings.

THE PRESIDENT: Committee on State Finance and Taxation, Delegate Sherbow.

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Our Committee meeting which is scheduled to take place this afternoon will continue as scheduled, and I will ask Mr. Case if he will take over the meeting this afternoon and get out the schedule of meetings with witnesses that we have set for next week. We are hopeful, Mr. President, that we will have
