

THE PRESIDENT: You may proceed.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Along with their mother in the gallery are my daughter, Kathy, and Bill, Tom and Dick, the older boys. They were born and raised in Maryland, go to school in Bethesda, and unlike their father, are not accused of being moonlighters and sundowners.

(Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: There are no motions or resolutions. The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, on behalf of the Committee on Calendar, I move that Debate Schedule No. 2, which will involve the debate in connection with Committee Recommendation S & E-1, that in the first paragraph where the speech limitation is stated at five minutes, I move that it be amended to provide a reduction to three minutes, and that there be added to the Schedule the following language "presentation by sponsor of further amendments is limited to ten minutes including the time yielded for answering questions".

THE PRESIDENT: Is there a second?

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)

Is there any discussion? The question arises on the motion to dissolve into the Committee of the Whole and to amend Debate Schedule No. 2 so as to provide that no speech shall exceed three minutes in length and to provide limitation of ten minutes to the sponsor in the presentation of further amendments. The ten-minute limitation to include time yielded for answers.

All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No; the Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

The Committee of the Whole will come to order.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: I make a motion that the Convention dissolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering orders of the day subject to debate limitation in accordance with Schedules 1 and 2 as amended.

THE PRESIDENT: I am sorry the Chair misunderstood you. The question arises on resolution of the Convention to the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of consideration of the matters indicated on the Agenda and General Orders of the day.

All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

(Whereupon, at 10:10 A.M., the Convention resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole.)

(The mace was removed by the Sergeant-at-Arms.)

PRESIDING

THE CHAIRMAN: The Committee of the Whole will come to order.

When the Committee of the Whole recessed yesterday, Delegate Hopkins had the floor for presentation of the minority report. Come forward to the reading desk. Delegate Bamberger.

DELEGATE BAMBERGER: Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of personal privilege. I would like this body to welcome the eighth grade of the School of the Shrine of the Sacred Heart who are in the gallery above the Chairman's head, with the principal of the school and their teachers, Sister Mary Louise, three of the mothers of students of the school, Mrs. Sheppard, Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. Weidemeyer. They intend to observe the proceedings of the Convention for the entire day.

(Applause.)

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair would like to take this further opportunity to state that eighty to one hundred students of Douglass High School in Baltimore City will meet with the delegates to this Convention from the Fourth District of Baltimore City immediately after the morning session in the Hearing Room of the Baltimore City Delegation room in the Shaw House. The Chair recognizes Delegate Hopkins for the presentation of Minority Report LB-1(E).

Delegate Hopkins.

DELEGATE HOPKINS: Mr. Chairman, fellow delegates, I hope I will do nothing to interfere with Delegate Powers' optimism.
