The clerk of the house of delegates delivers to the clerk of the senate the following resolution:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 1, 1796.

RESOLVED, That John Leathertury having paid the whole balance of principal and interest of six per cent. on the sums due from him as sheriff for fines and forfeitures, and collector of the fund tax for Somerset county, he and he is hereby released from the payment of the nine per cent. incurred in consequence of his non-payment of the principal at the time required by law.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The resolution in favour of Alexander Rigdon, was read the second time and dissented from, and, together with the following message, bills and resolution,

BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 2, 1796.

GENTLEMEN,

WE have dissented from your resolution in favour of Alexander Rigdon. In this case we see no necessity for opening accounts in the auditor's books which have been regularly closed. We will readily concur in any resolution which you may please to originate, enabling the treasurer to pay over to the said Alexander Rigdon the balance of money appearing due him upon the books in the treasury.

By order,

A. VAN-HORN, clk.
