

By the state of Maryland the annual donation of seventeen hundred and fifty pounds; by students for tuition six hundred and twenty-eight pounds one shilling and three-pence half-penny; and by subscribers nothing. The committee further report, that by the said account it appears the said visitors and governors have, during the period aforesaid, paid away the sum of nineteen hundred and thirty-seven pounds ten shillings in salaries to the professors and masters of the said college, and the sum of one hundred and eighty-three pounds fifteen shillings to the guardians of the boys on the charity foundation, which payments amount in the whole to the sum of two thousand one hundred and twenty-one pounds five shillings. All which is submitted to the house.

By order,

S. LUCKETT, clk.

Which was read.

The report on the petition of Charles Mankin was read the second time and concurred with.

RESOLVED, That the agent be and he is hereby directed to stay all proceedings of the bond of Charles Mankin and his securities to the state of Maryland, and that the said Charles Mankin be allowed to pay the debt due on his bond to the state according to the following instalments, to wit: One third of the whole balance on or before the tenth day of November next, and on the tenth day of November in each year until the whole shall be paid, and provided also, that the interest on the whole sum shall be paid annually as it becomes due.

Mr. Ridgely, from the committee, brings in and delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the memorial of the stockholders of the Baltimore insurance company have taken the same into consideration, and beg leave to report, that as it is discovered by experience that the law passed last session of assembly incorporating the said insurance company contains some restrictions calculated to defeat the beneficial purposes contemplated by that law, and as they are not sensible that any inconvenience can result from a repeal of such parts of the said act of incorporation as respect those restrictions, are of opinion that the prayer of the memorial ought to be granted, and suggest the propriety of passing a law conformable thereto. All which is submitted to the house.

By order,

J. W. KING, clk.

Which was read the first and second time, concurred with, and leave given to bring in a bill pursuant thereto. ORDERED, That the committee appointed on the said petition, and Mr. M^cKim, who is added to the said committee, prepare and bring in the same.
