Passed December 31.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act for erecting a public school in Frederick county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by an act of assembly, passed in the year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-three, entitled, An act for erecting a public school in Frederick county, it is, among other things, enacted, that in order to the erecting and building a house, and other conveniencies, for a county school, there shall be one acre of land purchased in Frederick-town, in Frederick county, by the persons in the said act mentioned, who were thereby appointed visitors of the said school, viz. Colonel Thomas Cresap, Mr. Thomas Beatty, Mr. Nathan Magruder, Captain Joseph Chapline, Mr. John Darnall, Colonel Samuel Beall, and the reverend Mr. Thomas Bacon, which said visitors were by the said act invested with certain rights, privileges, powers and authorities: And whereas the aforesaid visitors are dead, have removed from the county, or have refused to act: And whereas by another act of assembly, passed in the year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine, entitled, An act to appropriate the half acre of ground therein mentioned to the use of the public school in Frederick county, it is, among other things, enacted, that the justices shall cause half an acre of the public ground in Frederick-town, as mentioned and described in the said last act, to be laid off and bounded, and certificate thereof returned and recorded, for the purposes mentioned and declared in the said act: And whereas agreeably to the first recited act the acre of land has been purchased, and agreeably to the last recited act the half acre of land has been laid off, bounded, and certificate thereof returned and recorded: And whereas by the active exertions and liberal endeavours of the inhabitants of Frederick county a commodious building for a seminary of learning has been erected and nearly completed,

A school to be founded, &c.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That there shall be founded a school, or seminary of learning; in Frederick-town, and Frederick county, under such regulations and restrictions as are herein after prescribed, which shall be known by the name of Frederick County School.
