

10. 90

William: Fallout of this County Caylor, saying affirming and his will without, in a loud voice declaring that it was no more sin to kill the said Fallout than it was to kill a dog, not regarding his respect by the Law of God he ought and should give to Magistrate but in despite of their power & authority by Law imposed by particularizing the said Cap: David Brown in the name of the whole did lawfully imply usurp to the said power. Their Majesties Attorney Craves judgment may be entered against the said Starbrough according in that respect made and provided. James: Saucy for the Court

The Court being read the said Starbrough referred him self to the judgment of the Court. who having heard the Evidence sworn and examined, do give their opinion that the said Starbrough is guilty of some part of breach of their Ma^{ties} Laws and therefore Orders the said Starbrough to find security for his good behaviour till next Court. And thereupon came Henry: Lynne and John: Goff and did touch their fingers to be ind. bled with their Ma^{ties} in 5. p man, Starbrough in 10. sterling money to be ind upon their goods and Challenged for their Ma^{ties} up on the Condition of writing Recognizance is sure that if the above said Matt: Starbrough be of the good behaviour to all their Ma^{ties} liage people of this County: from the day of the date till the second Wednesday in August then their Recognizance to be voyd and of new effect otherwise to be and remain in full power for and value.

William: Fallout of this County Caylor, saying affirming and his will without, in a loud voice
 declaring that it was no more sin to kill the said Fallout than it was to kill a dog, not regarding
 his respect by the Law of God he ought and should give to Magistrate but in despite of their power & authority
 by Law imposed by particularizing the said Cap: David Brown in the name of the whole did lawfully imply usurp to the said power. Their Majesties Attorney Craves judgment may be entered against the said Starbrough according
 in that respect made and provided. James: Saucy for the Court

The above said Court being read the said Susanna pleads guilty and for by all respects her self to be upon her examination she confesses that Thomas: Nicholls is the father of her Child, which she had and the said Nicholls had. The Court having considered the promise, and upon the submission and promise of the said Susanna, do give remitt corporall punishment and accept a fine and therefore the Court Orders the said Susanna to give security for her duty oaths work and duty to be paid Court in demanded, as also to pay Court fees. And thereupon came M^r: Willmet Hill, and did Obey her self to Court to the same.

William: Fallout of this County Caylor, saying affirming and his will without, in a loud voice
 declaring that it was no more sin to kill the said Fallout than it was to kill a dog, not regarding
 his respect by the Law of God he ought and should give to Magistrate but in despite of their power & authority
 by Law imposed by particularizing the said Cap: David Brown in the name of the whole did lawfully imply usurp to the said power. Their Majesties Attorney Craves judgment may be entered against the said Starbrough according
 in that respect made and provided. James: Saucy for the Court

The Court being read the promise considered the Court Orders that Susanna: Westerman, for the said Willmet Hill two-hundred pound, it being for loss of mind and house troubles, be paid for and fine.

William: Fallout of this County Caylor, saying affirming and his will without, in a loud voice
 declaring that it was no more sin to kill the said Fallout than it was to kill a dog, not regarding
 his respect by the Law of God he ought and should give to Magistrate but in despite of their power & authority
 by Law imposed by particularizing the said Cap: David Brown in the name of the whole did lawfully imply usurp to the said power. Their Majesties Attorney Craves judgment may be entered against the said Starbrough according
 in that respect made and provided. James: Saucy for the Court