

the seventh: Anno Domini 1690 =

To w<sup>ch</sup> time viz, the day above so the Court was adjourned. But no Sheriff in being nor any of the Justices of Peace. There did this <sup>day</sup> appear at the Court-house viz, M. James: Esq. M. James: Esq. M. Stephen: Esq. & M. Thomas: Esq. Justices
 But for want of a Sheriff and one of the Justices of Peace, there could be no Court held nor no adjournment made. And therefore the Justices above named do declare to all persons present, that they came there in hope to have met with a Sheriff in stead and place of of their late Sheriff: M. Wm. Draxton was lately deceased, as also some of the Justices of Peace, in order to have appointed their Councils officers, where for reasons above said was impracticable. And therefore did wish the County to be satisfied till November Court following

It was ordered by the Justices in September Court last past. that the Constables of every hundred, take the taxable Inhabitants of the several parishes into their list of Taxables, to be was forthwith sent to the aforesaid Constables. = And after our Burgeesses was gone over the Bay with the generall list of Taxable persons in this County, the aforesaid Constables (viz. James: Sanyerell.
 brought to the Clerk's Office a list of the so Taxable persons upon the several parishes as following:

- The true list of the several parishes.
- Samuel: Cusby. 1
  - Thomas: Co. 1
  - John: Wainor 1
  - John: Laws. 1
  - William: Laws 2