

His aforesaid Complaits, Expositions, warrants and Recognizances being read in Court, to which the said Esagus seemed very penitent and humble; he with the wife of the said Esagus viz. Mary, did by supplicates the worshipfull Court to remit the said Esagus Crimes and for to witte. The said Esagus being to amend his life, which being considered by the Court of some was granted. But is the opinion of the said Court, that the said Esagus Rigger hath brake his former Bonds, being bound to good behaviour last Martz Court.

And whereupon came the said Esagus Rigger and by way of Recognizance in the sum of ten pounds sterling money, Major Ambrose London and Mr Edward Joubert in the sum of five pounds of the like money being the sum to stand in due to their Ma^{ties} to be beyond upon the goods chattels & knowl^lge of the Condition of write Recognizance is such that if the above bound Esagus Rigger be of the good behavior and abstarant towards their Ma^{ties} King: Heaps of this Recognizance, but more especially his said wife Mary, that then their obligation to be void and of none effect otherways to be void in full power, force and vertue.
