

The Cor. Com^s of Somerset. The humble Petition of Henry Lynch ^{the} humbly sheweth That whereas John Copp late of this County Esquire in his life time stood indebted to your petitioners the just sum or quantity of four hundred thirty seven pounds of port which he hath not paid whereupon your petitioners humbly requeste Order against Ju: Franklyn who married the Administrat^{ion} of the good and Chastell of the aforesaid John Copp deceased. And as in duty bound shall pray.

There was this following account produced in Court.

This day being 2^d of May 1689 in Henry Lynch being duly sworn doth declare the 437 of Cobatts to be justly due by Ju: Copp Before us, Rob: King.

It is ordered by us this 2^d day of May 1689. Henry Lynch

The Original of the above said Petition was mentioned to be according to Oath made before M^r Robert King, and Order was likewise granted for tobacco.

But in half an hour Com^s Thomas Pool with the aforesaid Petitioner went to the allowed, and turned the word tobacco, into port, by interlining in the said petition likewise Henry Lynch in person affirmed that the above said account was port due to him, and that the mistake might probably be in M^r King, and therefore humbly prayed the Courts consideration for the same. And likewise the said Lynch offered to swear the same, viz that every particular article in the above said account was due him in port, and that he had not ret^{ained} any part or partell thereof, which Oath was to the said Lynch administered. And therefore ORDERED that the above said sum in the of account be only paid in Port viz four hundred thirty seven pounds to be paid by John Franklyn.

Thomas Barrongood and John Cayle acknowledge to the Court to be indebted by way of recognizance unto their Ma^{ties} in the sum of ten pounds # man and Jacob Martin in 20. Sterling the condition of the above said recognizance is such that if the above bound Jacob in be of good behavior and abarrant to all his Ma^{ties} lijs people within this Province, that this recognizance to be void and of none effect otherwise to be and remain in full power and effect.

The Cor. Com^s of Somerset County Court the humble Petition Jacob Brown humbly sheweth That your Petitioners formerly bought a woman servant of Cap^t Thomas Burrill known by name of Elizabeth Juggergill whose said servant is since run away from your Petitioners is married with one John Haswell your Petitioners humbly prayes that the said John
