The Petition Certificates and attempt being read in Court Brown and Hefwell joyntly By their Attorneys referring it solely to the judgment of the Court who having well considered the premises do: resolve: the said Elizabeth Morthall to be the wife of John: Hefwell. — Sent for Brown: — James: Sangster for Hefwell

The same Luis came with all Complaints against the Arbitrary Judicium of their inferiours towards our English neighbours. all which they have been acquainted with not all regarding the same but returned ill language, saying they are abused and therefore our said Justices having taken the premises into Consideration did then pass an Order, where you John Cowford Senior and William Brown are punctually to observe and make report of the same at our next Court to be holden the second Tuesday in March following. where it is as followeth. viz: that you goe to the upper Indian Towns viz: Ardymons Conson. and friendly to discourage those Judicium touching the above said Complaints, and know the occasion of difference betwixt the English and them and if so be the English have done them any wrong (tell them) that if they please to come to Court they shall have Justice done them. It is likewise reported they have killed several English Roggs

The same Luis the Court Ordered that Edmund: Hammond do appear next Court to be holden the second Tuesday in March, to answer Objections made against him by Indians
