one from a fever and living at a great distance are summoned as witnesses in a plea of trespass do p^{er} son Thomas Stewart pl. and William Hopt doff. We your petitioners humbly request your kind that our Affidavit may be taken, your petitioners being now strangers, and we being our selves —
And here we humbly begg your Worships consideration of our condition and if petition shall ever pray

This petition read in Court but not assented to.

Round. 1st March of 1689 Humbly request the favour of you to inform the Court of my Wifes condition that she is now in (viz) to the best of my judgment: she is not long for this life, she is in a demigrowth, doff condition and all her head and face, swells as if it were poisoning, all swells up and poiff as it swells, with several other demigrowth symptoms attend her. Bro. Boynton and his wife hate been this day to visit her, they doo look upon her to be past hopes of recovery. John Barron hath also wife son and can inform you of her condition as we real trust. If in Case she lives I stand still bound for her and sisters appearance next Court your servant John. Biejrowd.

The Coler being read Biejrowd was excused for 4 times

These the Jurors of the pair for Somerset County and the humble Petition of Myson Dunlap humbly sheweth to your Worships that the petitioner was lately presented as he is informed, but knows not by him nor for what and hath attended the Court since monday last, Now so it is that the petitioner being coming up to the sea side and will be at great loss by attending Court so long may it please Worships to cause the sd presentment to be brought to tryall, that the petitioner may be discharged and as he is bound in duty shall pray for.

Sumner has made that he had attended five days, at Court, being summoned by Peter Whaples
