

the House shall, if appealed to, decide on the case, but without debate. If there be no appeal, the decision of the Chair shall be submitted to. If the decision be in favor of the Member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed; if otherwise, he shall not be permitted to proceed without leave of the House; and, if the case require it, he shall be liable to the censure of the House.

XII.

No Member shall vote on any question in the result of which he is immediately and particularly interested, nor in any case where he was not present when the vote was taken, without leave of the House; and upon a division and count of the House on any question, no Member without the Bar shall be counted.

XIII.

Every Member who shall be in the House when the question is put, shall give his vote, unless the House, for special reasons, shall excuse him. And the refusal of any Member present to vote, on calling the yeas and nays, shall be noted on the Journal at the request of any Member.

XIV.

No Member, without the permission of the House shall answer on the yeas and nays, who did not divide on the question; and if any Member divide on one side and answer on the other on calling the yeas and nays, the same shall be noted on the Journal at the request of any Member.

XV.

No Member shall take out of the House any Bill, or other Paper belonging to the House, without leave of the Speaker; and no original paper shall be delivered to any person during the recess of the Legislature, without a written order from the Speaker.

XVI.

Any Member, on motion, or in debate, may call for the reading of any Law, Journal, Record or other Public Proceedings, which may relate to the subject matter.

XVII.

No Member shall nominate more than one person on any
