

Committee; and in making such nomination, he shall rise and address himself to the Speaker.

XVIII.

The name of every Member making a Motion, presenting any Petition, Memorial, or other Paper, proposing any Resolution, Order, or other matter, shall be inserted on the Journal; but if any motion or proposition be withdrawn, all proceedings relating immediately thereto shall be expunged from the Journal.

XIX.

Whilst the Speaker is putting any question, or addressing the House, none shall walk out or cross the House; nor in such case, or while a Member is speaking, shall hold private discourse, so as to interrupt debate.

XX.

When a Motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the Speaker; or being in writing, it shall be handed to the Chair, and read aloud by the Clerk, before debate; and every Motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Speaker or any Member require it.

XXI.

When a Motion is made and seconded, or when a Question is under debate, the matter shall receive a determination by the Question; or it may be postponed by a motion to adjourn, to lie on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or amend, to postpone indefinitely—which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged. A motion to strike out the enacting words of a Bill, shall have precedence of a motion to amend; and, if carried, shall be equivalent to its rejection; and when a question is postponed indefinitely, the same shall not be acted on again during the session.

XXII.

The Previous Question shall be in this form: "Shall the Previous Question be now put?" It may be called for on any question; and when demanded by a majority of the members present; it shall preclude all further amendment and debate on the question or section of the bill under consideration.
