

NEW YORK, Aug. 13, 1865.

Dear Sir:—I am thinking to emigrate to Maryland, having seen an advertisement in the New York Herald to the effect that you would send me a pamphlet containing information in regard to the resources and products of the State, and the best location to emigrate to.

Send me one of your pamphlets please, and I remain

Yours, respectfully,

TIMOTHY GALLAGER.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15, 1865.

W. R. COLE,

Sir:—A number of the men employed in the factory in which I work having seen the advertisement of the resources of Maryland, and wishing to know more about the land, be so good as to forward a pamphlet to the address here given: Mr. John Curtis, 305 east Ninth street, New York city, and much oblige a number of workmen.

Yours truly,

JOHN CURTIS,

LE ROY, GENESEE COUNTY,
NEW YORK, May 28, 1865.

W. R. COLE, Esq.,
Baltimore, Md.,

Dear Sir:—Will you have the kindness to forward me a few copies of your Land Circular. I will make good use of them. There will be a large emigration from this section for a better climate as soon as matters become settled.

I have been engaged in a large tract of New Jersey lands. Can I get any chance with yours?

Respectfully yours,

R. F. DANFORTH, Att'y-at-Law.

PALMYRA, Burlington Co., N. Y.

Mr. W. R. COLE,

Sir:—I shall ask of you the favor of sending me one of those pamphlets that gives the description of soil and prices of land in the various parts of your State. The act of your General Assembly in preparing these pamphlets giving the direct particulars to many that could not otherwise get it will prove I believe of great importance.
