

Now a number of enterprising soldiers at this post, expecting their discharge shortly, are desirous of forming an association for the purpose of settling in some of the Southern lands for agricultural and mechanical purposes. The article in Tribune of the 16th, has led us to desire information concerning the lands of Maryland—where they are located, and on what terms they can be had by actual settlers, &c.

Will you do us the favor then to forward a pamphlet or any other work containing the desired information—to my address as above. And oblige,

Yours very respectfully,

D. H. PLUMB.
Librarian.

SACOWAINE, Sept. 14th, 1865.

W. R. COLE, Esq.,

Dear Sir:—I have been recently through a portion of Delaware and the Eastern shore of Maryland, looking at the lands for sale there. Since my return some of my neighbors have gone down and purchased farms near the Choptank River in Caroline county, and quite a number of others are intending to go.

Since my return I have seen a pamphlet on the "Resources of Maryland," but had no time to read it, I simply took your address, if you have any on hand I wish you would forward me one, and a list of farms for sale near some navigable stream in a healthy locality, or near some business place, or if there are good timber lands near water communication that can be bought low.

Your servant,

C. G. BURLEIGH.

CAMP PAROLE, Annapolis, Md.,

May 17th, 1865.

Mr. W. R. COLE,

Sir:...Please send me one of your pamphlets, (Homes in Maryland,) I am a soldier now, but expect to get my discharge within a short time, I am a farmer by occupation, and on my return home I intend to follow the same. I live in