

A. I don't believe I do.

65th. Why was Christopher C. Johnson disfranchised?

A. I do not recollect.

66th. Who was witness against Henry King, and what was his testimony?

A. Peter McDaniel. He said he had heard Mr. King rejoice at the victories of the South; he said he was there stacking wheat for Mr. King; King's wife had been to Newtown, and heard of some victory of the South; he (King) went to the wheat yard rejoicing, and said, "Uncle Peter, must I shout?" with other expressions similar.

67th. Why was not John L. Lankford registered?

A. From his own statements. I don't recollect what those statements were; and his answering the questions in his own way so that they were not satisfactory.

68th. In reply to a question which you propounded to him, "Have you ever sympathized with the South?" did he not say that his sympathies were with the suffering on both sides?

A. I do not recollect.

69th. You stated that you inquired if the applicant had ever hurrahed for Jeff Davis: if he said, "Yes," did you consider that a cause of disqualification?

A. I should suppose it was, if in reality.

70th. Did you ever inquire whether such applicant had done so in fun when he was sober, or when he was drunk, so as to ascertain whether it was in reality?

A. I did not.

71st. Do you recollect why you disqualified Littleton D. Maddux?

A. I do not.

72d. Do you remember the cause of disqualification of Littleton H. Pusey?

A. I do not.

73d. Why was George T. Parsons disqualified?

A. From his own statements partially.

74th. State them if you can?

A. I asked him several questions, which he answered. I asked him if he had ever hurrahed for Jeff. Davis? He said he had. I turned around to my colleagues, and asked them if they were satisfied? if not, to swear me. I had heard him talk a great deal. They said they were satisfied.
