

A. I don't know anything about that.

31st. The record shows Levin Woolford to have been sworn by you, but there is no entry of cause of disqualification, nor is his name carried out as a qualified voter. Why is it so?

A. It must be a mistake, an omission or oversight.

32d. What act of disloyalty was proved against Charles H. Rider?

A. I don't remember.

33d. What act of disloyalty was proved against Thomas F. J. Rider?

A. I don't remember.

34th. What questions did John M. Phillips refuse to answer?

A. I don't remember.

35th. What act of disloyalty did Horatio Nelson acknowledge?

A. I asked him if he ever rejoiced at the success of the rebel arms over the arms of the United States? He said, when he heard of the result of the battle of Bull's Run he shouted, Glory, Hallelujah! and said it was the gayest day of all his life.

36th. What questions did Sandy Malone fail to answer?

A. I don't remember.

37th. What acknowledgment did William W. Mitchell make?

A. I don't remember.

38th. What testimony and who gave it, did you have against Solomon Layfield?

A. I don't remember.

39th. What proof did you have of the disloyalty of Joshua Holliday?

A. I don't remember.

40th. What cause of disloyalty was proved against Jesse Davs?

A. I don't remember.

41st. If an applicant said his sympathies were with the South how did you enter him?

A. If he had said he had expressed those sympathies, I so entered it.

42d. Did Edwin Dashiell say, he had expressed his sympathies openly?

A. I do not remember whether he did or not.