

3d :

We all took the oath of office together in the court-house in Princess Anne.

4th :

A. I was, sir.

5th :

A. I think he was. He was in the office more than once.

6th :

A. No, sir ; not that I ever heard of.

7th :

A. I don't recollect the precise words that Mr. Wright said ; there were some words, but I don't recollect them.

8th.

A. I have answered that question ; I don't know what was the language made use of now.

9th :

A. I don't know our language now ; I can't recollect ; we had some talk, but I don't know what it was.

10th :

A. Not that I know of. It might have been so and it might not have been. I don't know what the conversation was. I did not charge my mind with it, and I don't know that it had any reference to the conversation in the house.

11th :

A. I just answered that question. I don't recollect all. I did not charge my mind with such.

12th :

A. I heard no such conversation.

13th :

A. No, sir ; I think not.

14th :

A. No, sir ; there is one word left out ; we administered the oath of allegiance and administered the following form with it which says, " You will answer all such questions as shall be propounded to you, touching your right to registration and voting."

15th :

A. The first two days I think we did not, but after that we did.

16th :

A. I think there was one or two through mistake ; the books will show.
