

66th.

A. I don't recollect now.

67th.

A. Proof that he was disloyal.

68th.

A. Proof of acts and the general opinion of the public.

69th.

A. He did not appear for any acts to be proved against him.

70th.

Same answer.

71st.

He did not appear.

72d.

Same answer.

73d.

Same answer.

74th.

Same answer.

75th.

Same answer. The board knew of these men's disloyalty, if be requested it can be proven.

76th.

A. I include the whole. I make the same answer.

77th.

Knew enough to know they were disloyal. I don't recollect the particular charges now; at the time the books were made out there were things made known to us which we can not remember now.

78th.

A. He condemned himself

79th.

A. The Board knew of the man's disloyalty, and it can be proven.

80th.

A. It can be proved by myself, the charge of being drafted into the service and running away. I have heard him hurrahing for Jeff. Davis, and cursing the authorities of the Government.

81st.

A. Barren Creek Springs, at an Election.