

5th. Was Mr. Wright before the Board more than once?

6th. Do you say on your oath that no conversation occurred with Mr. Wright and Mr. Phillips and Mr. Halton, your colleagues, while he was before the Board, with reference to the exclusion of Democrats as disloyal?

7th. When you left the room did not Mr. Wright on the steps or in front of your office, say to you that you were hard on the Democrats?

8th. Did not you say to Mr. Wright that you meant Breckenridge Democrats?

9th. Did not Mr. Wright say to you that he would like you to show him the difference between you and him, that you supported Bell and he supported Breckenridge, and they had both gone into secession?

10th. Was not that talk in consequence of what had passed in the office of the Board a few moments before?

11th. Do you recollect all that passed in the house before the Board?

12th. Not recollecting all that passed in the house, and not charging your memory with it as you say, can you say positively that no conversation occurred between Mr. Wright, Mr. Phillips and Mr. Halton, respecting their intention to exclude Democrats?

13th. Did not Mr. Wright on his appearance before you say, that he was willing to take the oath but was not willing to answer any question you might choose to ask him?

14th. Did you never propound the oath in this form, "you shall answer all such questions as shall be propounded to you touching your right of registration and voting?"

15th. Did you ascertain and register the name of every free male white citizen or resident in or temporarily absent from your district preparatory to administering the oath?

16th. Did you enter as disloyal or disqualified, in the 7th column, any but those who appeared and claimed the right of Registration?

17th. Did you enter any as "failing to appear and disloyal?"

18th. How could it be a mistake when you coupled "disloyal" with "failing to appear," and put both down in the same column?

19th. Mistake of what?

20th. Did you enter in the seventh column the cause or reason for the disqualification of all persons whom you entered as disqualified or did not extend as a qualified voter?
