

39th. What else did you require ? .

40th. What are those causes ?

41st. What question did you ask to ascertain if a man was disloyal after he had taken the oath ?

42nd. Did you always keep your books open at the place of advertised meeting from 9 to 5 o'clock, on the days appointed by law ?

43d. When did you finally close your books ?

45th. Did you not receive applications and act upon them on the days of review ?

46th. Did not you make changes after the day of review had passed ?

47th. Did you close your books on the last day of review ?

48th. In your answer to the sixteenth interrogatory you said one or two who did not appear or apply were entered in the seventh column as disqualified by mistake; who were those persons and were they all whose non-appearance was adjudged cause of disqualification ?

49th. Did you or not determine non-appearance or failing to apply as a cause of disqualification, and did you or not in most cases so enter it in the 7th column ?

50th. If a man refused to answer any question you propounded to him, how did you enter him ?

51st. What question did B. Armstrong refuse to answer ?

52d. Did he answer no question at all ?

53d. What questions did you propound ?

54th. Can't you recollect any one question you asked him ?

55th. Were you or not in the habit of requiring two or more qualified voters to be produced by the applicant after he had taken the oath, to prove his loyalty ?

56th. In what cases ?

57th. Why did you require it of Levin Graham ?

58th. His general reputation for what ?

59th. In what particular ?

60th. What question did you ask Mr. Graham ?

61st. What questions did William V. Venables refuse to answer ?

62d. Joseph Mathuly, Ebenezer M. Miller, Beaucham A. Wright, Jobez Willey, Marcellus Mathuly, Levin Wright, of Solomon, Nathaniel J. Walker, John Wilson, Isaac K.