

A. I don't know the precise words now, but enough to convince me that he was a disloyal man.

31st. Thomas J. Johnson of T, is entered disqualified, what was proved against him?

A. I don't remember.

32nd. You are entered as the witness against him, can you remember anything you have ever heard him say?

A. I remember the evening he was before us, of his saying something which convinced the board but I have forgotten what it was.

33d. Do you remember any evidence against Wm T. King?

A. I don't remember, we had some before us.

34th. Were you called on by the board to testify to anything against Jno McDaniel?

A. I don't remember, I think I was witness against him.

35th. What did you testify against him?

A. Well, I believe the board all believe that Mr. McDaniel was a rebel. I don't recollect any particular act, the board was pretty well acquainted with Mr. McDaniel and knew of his movements.

36th. What language did you ever hear Mr. McDaniel use?

A. I don't remember the precise language.

37th. Did you ever hear him declare that he adhered to those in armed rebellion or expressed a desire that they should succeed?

A. I don't know that I ever heard him express a desire that they should succeed, but I have heard him speak favorably of the South and say he thought they would succeed.

38th. Did you ever know Mr. McDaniel to do anything disloyal?

A. I have not.

39th. Can you remember anything proved against S. L. Parker?

A. I don't remember; there was a witness, but I can't state now what he testified to.

40th. Did you disqualify anybody upon general reputation of being a rebel sympathiser?

A. Not that alone.

41st. The cause of disqualification of Levin Parsons is en-