

Have you ever felt or expressed any regret at any failure of the Federal armies, or their defeat by the Confederate armies?

T. A. SPENCE.

The claimant by his counsel objects to all the above questions and to the answers thereto, as propounded to this and the other witnesses examined or to be examined in this matter, as not pertinent in a cross-examination, and not inquiring into any matter, made by the Constitution of the State a cause for disqualifying a voter.
