

2d. Did you apply to persons professing to be the Officers of Registration in your district, for registration as a legal and qualified voter; if you did, did you take the oath, and did you or not refuse to answer any question propounded by the Officers of Registration; was any charge preferred against you, or were any witnesses confronted with you? State all that occurred at the time of your application, as far as you can recollect?

3d. Did you vote at the judicial election in November, 1865; if yea, for whom did you vote, or for whom would you have voted had you been permitted to vote?

4th. Have you any knowledge of any conduct of the Officers of Registration in your district in the discharge of the duties of their office, showing a purpose to exclude their political opponents from registration as legal and qualified voters, or to register as such only those who would vote with them? State fully, and your means of knowledge?

5th. Have you or not any knowledge of the political character of the voters in your district; if yea, from that knowledge how many Democrats have been excluded by the Registers, and how many, in your judgment, have been deterred from applying for Registration, by their conduct in office of those acting as Officers of Registration.

JONES & IRVING,

Attornies for John R. Franklin.

[The contestant objects generally to each and all of the above questions and the answers thereto.
