

Robert Disharoon, a witness produced for the claimant, being duly sworn, answers and says:

1st.

A. Forty years; have been a voter 19 years; reside in 7th election district, resided there during the past year.

2nd :

A. I did apply; was notified of no charge; Mr. Bounds, one of the officers of registration to whom I applied, said I could not take the oath and could not be registered; was confronted with no witnesses; they refused to administer the oath. I was ready to take it, so I told Mr. Bounds before the board of registration.

3rd :

A. I did not vote, did not offer, did not go to the election, because I saw the list of names, and that I was not registered as a voter; should have voted for J. R. Franklin.

4th : Waived as to this witness.

Cross-Examination :

1st. That he has so far as he has been able.

2nd :

A. That he did feel and express regret at the defeat because of the fact that there were so many lives lost.

3rd :

A. That he did feel and express such gratification.

Question. At what triumph?

Answer. Don't know of any particular triumph.

4th :

A. That he has felt such regret and expressed it.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

ROBERT DISAROON.
