

A. It is.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

LEVIN WOOLFORD.

Attested to and written by Henry Page, Clerk.

Littleton R. Polk, a witness produced on behalf of the Claimant, being duly sworn, answers and says to special interrogatories filed for him :

To the first interrogatory :

A. I was one of the judges of election in the fifth election district, at the election held on the 7th of November last ; there was a paper, purporting to be a list of qualified voters of the fifth district, delivered to the judges on the morning of the election ; it was after the judges had been sworn in ; and I think some time after nine o'clock ; it was handed to the judges by Isaac Gibbons, Esq. ; I now produce the paper, and file it herewith.

2d.

The Judges proceeded in the election under the Registration Law according to that list. A few hours after the election commenced, four persons, giving the names of William Anadale, Levin T. Parker, Severn McGrath, and Henry W. Potter, came forward and offered their ballots. The list was examined, and finding no such names on it, the Judges declined to receive them. Whereupon Mr. Samuel Gibbons, professing to be an officer of Registration, came before the Judges and stated that these four men had been before the officers of Registration and had been passed by them as qualified voters, and that their names ought to be on the list. While the Judges were being urged by these men and their friends, backed up by one of the officers of Registration, to admit their votes, although their names were not on the list, Mr. Isaac D. Jones came forward and examined the list before us, and not finding his name on it as he stated, offered his ballot as a qualified voter, claiming a right to vote under the second section of the first article of the Constitution, and raised the question that the Registration act had not been