

as Officers of Registration, any one acting as their clerk? and if yes, who was the person.

A. Isaac Gibbons was acting as clerk when I applied.

5th. Is it the same Isaac Gibbons that you spoke of in your answer to the first interrogatory?

A. The very same.

6th. Had you done anything more as Judges of Election before the said paper was delivered to you, than to take the oath prescribed by law as Judges, appoint your clerks, and administer to them the oath prescribed by law? If yea, what.

A. He had not received any ballots, but voters were standing by and pressing their ballots upon us, before we received the list and we declined to receive them until we had received the list.

7th. Look upon the paper which is a part of your direct examination, and say whether the pencil marks in the shape of a V were made by the Judges or any one of them at the said election, and if intended to indicate a purpose; what was that purpose?

A. These marks were made by the Judges, and were put there to indicate that the person against whose name they were placed had voted.

8th. Were they not put there in compliance with the duty imposed upon you by the 18 section of an Act entitled, "an Act relating to the Registration of the voters of the State?"

A. They were.

9th. In your direct examination, you state that four persons giving in the names of William Anadale, Levin T. Parler, Severn McGrath and Henry W. Potter, came forward and offered their ballots; did these persons, all of them, come forward one and the same time?

A. I can hardly say whether they did or not, they all came in a crowd together except Henry Potter, others being with them.

10th. After they offered to vote and were rejected by you as you stated; did you not receive the votes of other persons before the statement of Mr. Isaac D. Jones, which you have given in evidence, was made to you?

A. We did.

11th. Look upon the paper heretofore referred to as a part of your evidence, and opposite No. 3, there is the name Anadale, and state whether or not the Samuel Gibbons, of whom you have spoken in your evidence as one of the Regis-
