A. No one but Richard D. Wallace was present and took the oath with me.

5th. On what day did you and Richard D. Wallace take the oath?

A. I can't be positive, but I think it was the day before or the day of the first meeting day.

6th. Who were present at the first meeting day?

A. Myself and Mr. Wallace, McCoy was clerk for us on that day, and continued to be so until McDorman resigned his place, when Mr. McCoy got a commission in his place

7th. When and before whom did Mr. H. C. McCoy take the oath of office as Registration officer?

A. I think Mr. William Dorman swore Mr. McCoy in our office, in the presence of Mr. Wallace and myself.

8th. What was your course of proceeding as Registration officers, towards those who were entered as disloyal; did you or not give them notice of any particular charge against them?

A. I gave them no notice.

9th. Do you remember whether the persons entered as disloyal were present when the witnesses whose names are on the book as testifying against them were examined?

A. They were not; they didn't ask for any trial and we didn't give them any.

10th. Mr. William McDorman's name appears upon the Registration Book several times as a witness against several persons: were you or not present, and did you or not hear Mr. McDorman's testimony against any of said persons? and if not, state why you did not hear it?

A. I was not present, and did not hear his testimony against any one, there were two or three persons in the house that we wanted to get evidence against. Mr. McCoy, asked me if we hadn't better take Mr. McDorman's evidence on oath, I told him we had, then he asked me if I would take those persons out of doors so that he could take Mr. McDorman's testimony privately; I took them out, and that was the reason I didn't hear what Mr. McDorman said.

11th. Was Mr. Wallace the other Registration officer present on that day?

A. I don't think he was, I'm most sure he was not.

12th. What was the question you asked witnesses about persons in the district?
