

Then he asked me if I had been in any of the States in rebellion since the war? Said I had not. Then, if I had sent or received any communications from or to the States in rebellion? Said I had not. He then said he had done with me. I didn't know but what I was a registered voter until I saw the published list.

Qd.

A. Did not vote because I was not registered; I did not go to the election at all; would have voted for Mr. Franklin.

Qth. Waived.

Cross-Examination:

Qst.

A. Of course I was; I knew that a great many of our best generals in both armies were being killed.

Qd.

A. Of course, I did; because I knew when it fell we were going to have a war, which I didn't want—at least I thought so.

Qd.

A. Don't remember of expressing myself about that battle.

Qth.

A. I have; I was glad to hear of the downfall of Richmond; I knew it was the end of the war.

Qth.

A. Of course, I was sorry at hearing of our Government forces being defeated, because I was tired of furnishing a substitute every three months.

Qth.

A. My sympathies were with the poorer class of people of both sides.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

GEORGE W. SCOTT.
