

7th. Did you not lay it before the judges of election of the 10th district; and did they receive or reject it as evidence of a legal registration?

A. I did on the morning of the election after they were sworn in; they said they did not think it was lawfully done, and they rejected it; in the morning I left my place as a judge, and was gone for about an hour and a half; before I went, the paper had not been thrown aside, and one vote had been cast, after I returned I was told by the other judges there they had thrown aside the paper and asked me if I agreed to it, and I not thinking the paper lawful agreed to it.

8th. Did you or not vote at that election and for whom did you vote?

A. I did vote and for Franklin.

Cross-Examination:

1st. During the war were not your sympathies with the South?

A. I don't think it a legal question, and I decline to answer.

2d. Did you feel or express any regret at the issue of the battle of Bull Run?

A. I decline to answer.

To the first cross-interrogatory:

A. I decline to answer.

2nd:

A. I decline to answer.

3d:

A. I decline to answer.

4th:

A. I don't recollect a of expressing any thing like it.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

WM. W. BOUNDS.

Attested and written by Henry Page, Clerk.

---

Robert S. Ritchie, a witness produced for the claimant, being duly sworn, answers and says: