

The above replies to the foregoing cross-interrogatories have been read to me and are correct.

ISAAC D. JONES.

Attested to and written by Henry Page.

Adjourned to meet, pursuant to notice, in Salisbury tomorrow morning, January 13th, at 10 o'clock.

HENRY PAGE,
Clerk.

JANUARY 13th, 1866.

Met in Salisbury pursuant to notice.

Samuel Q. Parker, a witness produced on behalf of the Claimant, being duly sworn, answers and says :

To the first interrogatory :

A. Ten years ; been a voter nine years ; resided in 1865 in Salisbury district, No. 9.

2d.

A. Did apply ; was confronted with no witnesses ; was notified of no charge ; took the oath ; answered all the questions ; I was never summoned to appear ; they had promised to allow me to appear in case any charge was brought against me ; they appeared not to be satisfied entirely with my own evidence, and I told them to have men summoned to testify concerning the matter, and they promised to do so, but
