Benjamin W. Truitt, a witness produced for the Claimant, being duly sworn, answers and says:

1st. Interrogatory.

A. Since 1848, been a voter since that time, resided in 1865 in Quantico district, (No. 2.)

2nd. I did apply, and offered to take the oath and they would not let me do it; was confronted with no witnesses and notified of no charge. I asked expressly if they had any charge against me, Mr. Pusey, one of the officers of Registration, said that because I had had my name entered two weeks before I offered to take the oath, he thought he had no
