

4th. Waived.

Special interrogatories:

1st. Were you or not deterred from taking the oath by the manner and threatenings of the officers of registration?

A. Yes, sir.

2nd. Were you conscious of having said or done anything criminal against your Government of the United States?

A. I never done anything against it in my life.

Cross-Interrogatories:

Q. At what time did you make your first application to the registers.

A. I think in the second week.

Q. At what time did you make your last application?

A. The last day of the sitting for correction I think.

Q. For what offense were you told by the registers a man could be sent to the penitentiary?

A. For swearing falsely.

Q. Did you or not decline to take oath at the time of your first application, from fear that some one would appear and testify that you had sworn falsely?

A. I did not know what some people might say.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

WILLIAM J. HUMPHREYS.

Attested to and written by H. Page, Clerk.

Mr. William J. Humphreys re-called.

Q. Had you or not supported the administration during the war until the election at which McClellan was a candidate?

A. I think I did; I voted for Mr. Crisfield for Congress, and afterwards for Mr. Cresswell, and for the Constitutional convention, but against the New Constitution.

Cross-Examination:

Q. For what reason did you cease to support the administration of Mr. Lincoln?

A. I wasn't black all over and couldn't go any further.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

WILLIAM J. HUMPHREYS.

Written and attested to by Henry Page, Clerk.
