

Q. Were these visits to Mr. Tod, and hearing the papers read all the grounds alleged for your exclusion as a voter?

A. All the grounds I ever heard.

Cross-Examination:

Q. What amount of tax have you paid to the United States every year?

A. My State and County Taxes together amount to 5 or $6.

Q. At the time your case was postponed by the officers of Registration, what reason was assigned for that postponement?

A. I can't call it a postponement, they said they were done with me, and had no more questions to ask, and required me to appear in two weeks with witnesses to prove my loyalty.

Q. Were you or not informed at any time that Thomas Ellis had testified to certain expressions used by you?

A. I never heard a word of it in my life, until now.

To the first filed Cross-interrogatory:

A. I felt regret at every battle I heard, I wanted to hear only of peace.

To the 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th, waived.

Q. Have or not your sympathies throughout the war been with those who were in armed rebellion against the Government.

A. My sympathies were with a few friends and relatives in the South, and no more.

The above has been read to me and is correct.

his

JOHN X McDANIEL.

mark.

Witness made his mark because of nervousness.

Attested to and written by Henry Page, Clerk.

John E. Harris, a witness produced on behalf of the claimant being duly sworn, answers and says: