

Q. Have or not your sympathies throughout the war been with those who were in rebellion against the Government?

A. No, sir, only to a certain extent, I had a son there. The above has been read to me and is correct.

JOHN E. HARRIS.

Attested to and written by Henry Page, Clerk.

Elijah Freeny, a witness produced on behalf of claimant being duly sworn, answers and says :

To the first interrogatory.

A. Forty-three years ; been a voter twenty-one years ; resided in 1865, in Salsbury district.

2d.

A. Did apply : took the oath , no charge ; no witnesses ; was excluded from the qualified list.

3d.

A. Did not ; would have voted for Mr. Franklin.

4th.

Waived.

Cross-examination :

Q. At the time of your application for registration, did you or not answer satisfactorily to the registers, the questions propounded to you ?

A. I answered all ; there was one they objected to, which was, did I or not rejoice over the triumphs of either party ? I told them I tried to subdue my feelings in rejoicing over any human suffering ?

Q. What was the reply of the registers ?

A. They told me they could not take that as a positive answer, and we parted so.

Cross-interrogatories :

To the first cross-interrogatory.

A. I decline to answer.

2d, 3d, 4th and 5th.

A. I declined to answer.
